Why Ozone Music Foundation?

Louisiana is known around the world for music — but songwriters need more than inspiration. They need stages, mentorship, education, industry access, community support, and real opportunities to grow.

Ozone Music Foundation exists to provide that platform.

Through year-round programming and signature events, we support singer-songwriters at every stage of development — from young musicians discovering their voice to working artists building sustainable creative careers.

Our Vision

To establish the Northshore and Louisiana as a recognized destination for singer-songwriter culture, education, performance, and creative enterprise.

About the Ozone Songwriter Festival

The Ozone Songwriter Festival is Louisiana's largest events dedicated to original songwriting. Each year, the festival provides a platform for more than 100 professional and emerging songwriters to share their music through live performances, workshops, networking, and community-centered events.

More than a festival, Ozone is a gathering place for artists, audiences, businesses, educators, and cultural partners who believe original music matters.

By sponsoring Ozone Music Foundation, you help us:

Create meaningful performance opportunities for songwriters:

- Support music education and youth outreach,
- Connect artists with audiences and industry relationships,
- Expand cultural tourism and local economic activity,
- Build a sustainable platform for Louisiana songwriting,
- Keep original music visible, valued, and growing.

Your Sponsorship Makes This Possible

Sponsorship dollars support festival production, artist programming, youth music initiatives, songwriter education, community events, promotional outreach, and the infrastructure required to grow Ozone into a year-round cultural and economic engine.

When you sponsor Ozone, your brand becomes part of a mission that celebrates Louisiana's creative identity and invests directly in the people who carry that music forward.

“Ozone is more than a festival. It is a platform for Louisiana songwriters to be heard, supported, and connected.”
